Protector Case

Trust your emergency readiness to Pelican's proven protection

You don't need to be an expert to be prepared — just the right gear. Pelican™ SRVL™ 72-Hour Emergency Kits are built to help you stay focused and take action when every second counts. Developed in partnership with Redfora, each kit includes certified survival supplies and is housed in a crushproof, waterproof Pelican Protector case—trusted by first responders, military teams, and field professionals worldwide.

Available in 2 and 4-person configurations, SRVL kits are designed for households, families, and shared spaces looking for a smarter way to prepare for wildfires, hurricanes, earthquakes, blackouts, and more.

Ideal for:

Individuals in earthquake, wildfire, flood, tornado or hurricane zones

Households wanting an emergency preparedness solution with enough supplies for multiple people

Suburban or rural homes in disaster-prone regions where infrastructure may be slow to recover

Individuals responsible for elderly relatives, children, or roommates—where coordinating last-minute prep isn't an option

Emergency preppers looking for a high-capacity, professionally packed system inside the most trusted case on the market

People who've tried building DIY kits and now want a complete, stress-free alternative
